

JCC Middle School Dance
Code of Conduct
2017-2018

The following are the expectations for all middle schoolers attending the JCC Middle School Dances on Saturday evenings at the Rosenbloom Owings Mills JCC.

Violation of any of these policies will result in immediate ejection from the dance.

Violations will result in phone calls to parents and guardians, and possibly local law enforcement (depending on the severity of the incident after evaluation by JCC Management staffing the Dance.)

In addition, violation of the following policies may result in suspension from future dances and JCC events including suspension or termination of JCC membership.

I. The JCC reserves the right to deny admittance to any middle schooler, both members and guests, whom they feel will not behave appropriately.

All attendees must have a valid ID showing proof of age or grade. Dances are for middle schoolers in grades 6-8 for the 2017-18 year. Anyone using a "fake Id" will be not allowed into the dance or future events for a defined period of time decided by JCC management.

II. Zero tolerance for any physical fighting or instigating / bullying.

This includes pushing, shoving, kicking, and punching.

III. Zero tolerance for any middle schooler who encourages his or her peers to cause harm either physically or emotionally upon another middle schooler.

IV. Zero tolerance for any sexual misconduct including inappropriate dancing and touching / grabbing of another middle schooler.

V. Zero tolerance for disrespect to JCC staff and Security personnel.

1. Talking back to staff and/or security will result in a phone call home and potential ejection and suspension from future dances and JCC events.
2. Inappropriate language to peers, staff, and security personnel will not be tolerated and can result in a phone call home and ejection from the dances.

VI. Drugs/alcohol

Absolutely no drugs or alcohol at the dances. If found, JCC staff will immediately call parents and guardians and local law enforcement.

1. I have read and understand the JCC Middle School Dance Code of Conduct
2. I understand that violation of any of these rules will result in possible suspension or termination of attendance from Middle School dances, other JCC events. and potentially as well membership at the JCC of Greater Baltimore.
